

Trane Supply Tech Rewards

Trane Supply Tech Rewards

Trane Supply Tech Rewards is a HVAC technician loyalty incentive program that rewards technicians for doing business with Trane Supply.

How to Earn Points

With Trane Supply Tech Rewards, technicians can earn points through in-store or online purchases, short surveys and trainings, special campaigns, and purchasing and recycling refrigerant.

Redeem Points for Rewards

Technicians can redeem earned points and choose from a catalog of over 50,000 rewards including, but not limited to, top brand merchandise, worldwide travel, event tickets, digital subscriptions, hotel bookings, charitable contributions, gift cards, and extraordinary experiences.

Program Eligibility

In order to be eligible for Tech Rewards, a participant must be an employee or principal of a HVAC contracting business with a Prophet 21 account at Trane Supply. Participants must obtain their employer's permission to participate in the program, and the HVAC contracting business must be in good credit standing with Trane Supply. Government employees are not eligible to participate in Tech Rewards.

How to Sign Up

Signing up for Tech Rewards is as easy as 1-2-3:

- 1) Call or visit the nearest Trane Supply store to talk with a Trane Supply representative and confirm contact information.
- 2) An email is sent within 24 hours with activation information.
- 3) Activate account on the Tech Rewards platform to start earning points towards rewards!
